Soccer Camp

A Language, soccer, and cultural immersion program for kids from 13 till 16 years old.

Program Objective:

To give the opportunity for adolescents to come to Costa Rica to work on their Spanish language skills, by taking classes and living with a Costa Rican family; to improve their soccer skills while working with a local trainer; and to be able to get to know this beautiful country while participating in safe, well planned excursions throughout the area.

Program Goals:

1. To improve students language skills (levels may range from low beginning through high advanced).
2. To enhance students cultural and athletic competency by having them participate in regular soccer training with a local trainer and to play matches with local people.
3. To give students the opportunity to stay with host families which will enhance cultural understanding and to improve language skills through total immersion.
4. To provide students with the opportunity to visit areas of interest within Costa Rica and to have lots of fun within a very safe framework.

Program Format:

This program is scheduled for a three week period with specific days and times for soccer training, games, excursions. This three week program will provide a total of 45 hours of language classes and many hours of sports and fun activities.
